Dollar-A-Day Initiative going well

Several friends of Meadowlark have responded to Meadowlark Foundation's recent holiday letter, which promoted the sixth annual Dollar-A-Day initiative. Thank you! This campaign encourages a gift of $365, a dollar for each day of the year, to benefit our Good Samaritan Fund, but donations of all sizes are welcome and appreciated! One-time contributions may be made by check, cash or credit card. Residents who'd like to divide their gift into monthly payments may do so with automatic withdrawals from a checking or savings account. Gifts from employees may be payroll-deducted.

A few of you have had questions as you've considered your gifts, so the Foundation offers the following information. Manhattan Retirement Foundation, doing business as Meadowlark Hills, is a not-for-profit registered 501(c)3 organization. Meadowlark Foundation provides opportunities for private giving to further the person-directed mission of Meadowlark.

Gifts supporting the Good Samaritan Fund are fully tax-deductible, and every dollar donated to the fund benefits residents living in one of our healthcare households who have exhausted their financial resources. Contributions are acknowledged with a thank you/gift receipt letter.

Don Emley, apt. 335, is credited with the idea for the Dollar-A-Day initiative, and he was recognized in 2013 with the Foundation's Good Samaritan Award. This award is given annually to individuals or organizations for donating their time, talent and resources to Meadowlark and for support of the Good Samaritan Fund.

If you have questions or suggestions regarding Meadowlark Foundation, please contact Becky Fitzgerald, Development Director, at 323-3843 or by email at rebecca.fitzgerald@meadowlark.org.

Gift services will be available until Friday, Dec. 23. Times designated to have gifts wrapped are from 5:30 to 8 p.m. Monday through Friday and 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. The Hospitality Staff is excited to wrap your gifts!

Being Mortal Book Study

Wednesday, Jan. 11, at 1:30 p.m.

Being Mortal by Atul Gawande is a book about the worst kept secret for all humans, we are mortal. While we all have a level of denial about our own mortality, Gawande attempts to highlight how one might live a fuller, more satisfying life if we learn to embrace our mortality.

Please join Dr. Matt Floersch on this six-week journey after the first of the year as he leads a book study on Being Mortal. The first book study will be from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 11, in the Community Room and will last for six weeks.

Please sign up in the Blue Book between now and Thursday, Dec. 22. If you do not have your own book Meadowlark will provide one at a cost of $17.

If you have any questions, please contact Tracy Musselman at (785) 323-3878.

LETTER TO THE MESSENGER

Thank you!

Submitted by Kinzie Jo Nelson

Thank you to EVERYONE at Meadowlark for my fabulous Sparkly Send-Off! I was so overwhelmed by your thoughtfulness, cards and words of kindness and my heart ached as I walked through the front doors on my last day. You are all special and dear to my heart.

I am enjoying my work in Stillwater very much, but it's not completely perfect because you're not here with me! I look forward to seeing you again, soon. Best wishes during this Holiday Season!

UPCOMING EVENTS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sign up for Resident Committees

Attention residents! Every year during the month of January, residents have the opportunity to sign up (or remove themselves from committees). The following committees are:

- Ambassador Committee
- Art Committee
- Building & Ground Committee
- Messenger Delivery Committee
- Messenger/Clerical Committee

Committee rosters are now available in the Blue Book at the Hospitality Desk. In January, residents will be contacted to confirm their membership.

Memory Activities Class (MAC) provides education, activities and discussions about memory and cognition in an informal setting. This group will meet from 10 to 11 a.m. Wednesday, Dec. 21, in the KSU Classroom.

Volunteers Needed!

We are in need of volunteers for a study at K-State in the Department of Food, Nutrition, Dietetics and Health. The study primarily involves coming into the lab, eating a meal (slice of chocolate pie) and remaining in the lab for six hours while we monitor your metabolic response.

Benefits include:

- $20
- Free chocolate pie
- Valuable information regarding personal health status, including body composition and metabolic markers
- Most of the time in the lab can be spent as you wish (on your computer, reading, etc.) — you can even come in with a friend.

Requirements include:

- Men and women that are age 60 years or older and do not regularly engage in exercise
- Not using lipid-lowering medication or having a diagnosed metabolic disease

Interested? Please email same@ksu.edu or call Sam at (972) 342-6473 for more information!

ASK SARAH

The evolution of change

Submitted by Sarah Duggan

Murphy Rose had a trip to the ER this week after she took a tumble and hit her head on the footboard of my bed. She cried for less than five minutes when it initially happened and there were no tears throughout the whole process at the hospital. She climbed up into the chair as instructed by the triage nurse, opened her mouth for the thermometer and stepped onto the scale unassisted to get her weight. After arriving to the treatment room she sat in the bed all by herself and laid back quietly as they used the medical glue to fix her "ouchie."

What a moment as a parent to watch your child, your baby, behave in such a grown-up way. I know she is destined to change, but it seems like overnight she grew into a big kid with her own thoughts and opinions, and the ability to listen during a stressful experience.

But no matter how proud I am of her, change still requires an adjustment and can be hard, even when we are expecting it. You may have noticed some changes (however slowly) in our print materials around Meadowlark. I mentioned at Town Meeting a couple months ago that I am working with the team at a local marketing firm to update our advertising and marketing materials, including our logo. Our logo received a refresh, not a total change, and by February most things will bear the updated graphic. One of the biggest changes is the absence of the word "Hills."

Although you may not see "Hills" on all materials, it isn't completely gone. Our campus living areas are still named Meadowlark Hills. People come to live at Meadowlark Hills. However, Meadowlark in general has a lot to offer the community beyond a living option, and for those services we have dropped the word "Hills."

This is a change that will take some adjusting, but I am excited about our updated branding and hope that it can help illustrate to others that Meadowlark is more than a place to live. It's a lifestyle and a local not-for-profit organization that strives to support healthy aging directed by the individual.

If you have additional questions regarding the updates, please contact me at (785) 323-3860.

See you next week and thanks for stopping by!
