Outdoor Opportunities

submitted by Nathan Bolls

The English poet, Gerald Manley Hopkins (1844-1889), penned the famous line, "The world is charged with the grandeur of God." Even if you do not accept the Godhead, our world is, every moment, charged with grandeur.

This grandeur, most visible and vibrant during spring, summer, and fall, is there for all to experience. To that end, numerous trails have been made across the Meadowlark campus, and they are open all year. These include trails to and around Bayer Pond and alongside the prairie glen, with one trail beginning off of the east end of Meadowlark Road and another behind Bramlage Hall. In good weather, scheduled golf cart rides can take you to and from the pond area. For walking any trail, a sturdy cane or hiking stick (or two) is highly recommended. Even seasoned hikers use 1-2 walking poles for the rough terrain of "out there."

Another trail begins beside the old cemetery site just east of 2252 Meadowlark Road and continues generally southward through and along the line of trees on the ridge between Meadowlark Valley and Meadowlark Road/Meadowlark Circle. Yet another trail begins behind 1203 Meadowlark Valley at the eastern end of the woods between the Meadowlark Valley cottages and Kimball Avenue. This trail, that ends on the Meadowlark Road sidewalk near Kimball Avenue, has an ambience that belies its proximity to the human rat race. Most trails have benches here and there (some shaded), numerous flowering plants in season, much bird activity, and both space and solitude. The pond area has two gazebos, with chairs.

Spending time outdoors in such places is one of the most healthful activities one can pursue. Health care professionals agree that we need the fresh air, space, and solitude that Nature can provide. We need times to both unwind and to get outside of ourselves. We need times for nothing but to sense the natural rhythms that occur all around us. Henry David Thoreau once remarked, "Thank God they cannot cut down the clouds."

We need the emotional boosters that come from following the soaring flights of birds; from seeing a bird carry food to its young; from appreciating the busyness of the wren or the beauty of a wildflower or bluebird; from hearing a fussing squirrel that thinks us too close to its turf; from marveling at the process of plant pollination or of a tree shutting down against the oncoming winter—from realizing that we are just one part—albeit a beautiful part—of this Mother Earth that sustains us, whether or not we admit the grandeur.

Election workers needed

The Riley County Clerk's office is looking for election workers for the upcoming election days in August and November of this year. This is a an opportunity to earn extra income, perform an important civic function, meet your neighbors and play a vital role in election history.

The commitment would be two full days, August 7 and November 6, from 5:45 a.m. to 7 p.m. Election workers receive $100 per day, plus an hourly rate for training time.

If you are interested in becoming an election worker, please pick-up an application at the Hospitality Desk. Contact Jodie Grimes with questions at (785) 565-6200 or via e-mail at jgrimes@rileycountyks.gov.

Symphony in the Flint Hills, sign up available

Sign-up sheets are now posted for the 2018 Symphony in the Flint Hills. This year's Symphony is Saturday, June 9, and will take place at the Rosalia Ranch in Butler County. Meadowlark is looking to get an estimate of how many people would be interested in attending before tickets are purchased. The cost of the trip is $130 per person, which includes a ticket to the event and transportation from Meadowlark.

There is a sign-up sheet in the Blue Book dedicated to gage level of interest. If you are interested, please sign up or contact Monte Spiller at 323-3801 no later than Friday, May 11.

In Flanders Field

by John McCrae (1915) & submitted by Fred Rohles

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.
We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe;
To you from failing hands, we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies
Grow, In Flanders fields.
